PENSIONS ACT
(CAP. 147)

Pensions (Amendment) Regulations 1974

Commencement : 1st September 1971

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 3 of the Pensions Act, and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I, Major-General Hassan Usman Katsina, the Federal Commissioner for Establishments, hereby make the following regulations :—

1. Regulation 17 of the Pensions Regulations in the First Schedule to the Pensions Act (as amended by the Pensions (Amendment) Regulations 1961) is hereby amended as follows :—

(a) immediately after paragraph (2) thereof there shall be inserted the following proviso :—

“Provided that sub-paragraph (b) above shall not apply in the case of an expatriate officer where the officer concerned elects that such increase shall not be considered as part of his pensionable emoluments.”; and

(b) immediately after paragraph (3) thereof there shall be inserted the following proviso :—

“Provided that sub-paragraph (c) above shall not apply in the case of an expatriate officer where the officer concerned elects that such increase shall not be considered as part of his pensionable emoluments.”

2. These regulations may be cited as the Pensions (Amendment) Regulations 1974 and shall be deemed to have come into effect on 1st September 1971.

Federal Commissioner for Establishments

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note does not form part of the above Regulations but is intended to explain the effect)

The Regulations provide that where an expatriate officer so elects, the Adebo Award may not be regarded as part of his pensionable emoluments when computing his pension and gratuity.
